

Classes Canceled Friday, Jan. 22
Jan. 21, 2016

Colleagues and Students,

Classes at the University of Kentucky will be canceled tomorrow, Friday, Jan. 22, 2016. Only Plan B (designated) employees are required to report to work.

More specific information about the status of scheduled events and facilities tomorrow and over the weekend can be found at www.uky.edu/alerts.

As schedules or conditions change, that link will be updated. Please check back for updated information.

The safety of our campus community is our top priority at the University of Kentucky. Given the high probability of a significant weather event tomorrow, we are making this decision now to ensure that students, faculty and staff can make appropriate decisions regarding their safety, travel and child care.

This decision also will allow our facilities and safety officials the time they need to ensure that the campus is appropriately prepared to be re-opened as early as possible.

Thank you for your cooperation as we work together to ensure everyone in our community is as safe as possible.
